Our Lady of Medjugorje's Message Given to Marija Pavlovic-Lunett August 25, 2011

"Dear children! Today I call you to pray and fast for my intentions, because Satan wants to destroy my plan. Here I began with this parish and invited the entire world. Many have responded, but there is an enormous number of those who do not want to hear or accept my call. Therefore, you who have said 'yes', be strong and resolute. Thank you for having responded to my call."

Commentary on the August 25, 2011 Message

Our Lady has been calling us to prayer and fasting for 30 years. I fear we may have gotten immune to their importance because of the frequency of Her call. I hope we never forget the power we have at our disposal. With prayer, Our Lady has already said wars can be stopped. Natural disasters can be averted with fasting. In essence, we can change the course of events upon the earth when we pray and fast! What power!

Our Lady reminds us in this message that satan wants to destroy her plan. How best might he do that than to convince us that there is no real power in prayer and fasting. Wouldn't satan want to lull us to sleep with Our Lady's urgent words? Wouldn't his plan involve making us believe that we have lots of time? No problem! Wouldn't his plan shove prayer and fast to the bottom of our priority list?

Recently, while I was praying the Rosary, a mental image came to me. I 'saw' a large, plush area like a meadow. A corale-type fence surrounded this circular space. Our Lady was portrayed as a silhouette of light in the middle of this meadow. We, her children were gathered around her. Beyond the open fence was dense darkness. There was also another prominent part of the fence – a gate that swung loosely.

The meaning of this image came to mind. While we remain in cenacle with our Mother, we are safe. She is able to protect and nurture us through our prayer and alignment with her messages. But the gate represents our free will. Our Lady cannot keep us within the confines of the lush meadow-like space. We are free to walk through the gate into the dense darkness. I sensed great danger beyond the fenced area. Satan was lurking in the darkness waiting to devour whoever came within his path – the path of materialism, addictions, selfishness, idleness, etc. How happy satan would be to lure us away from the safety of our cenacles of prayer!

Our Lady's August message tells those of us who said "yes" to remain strong and resolute. Stay within the gate. Stay close to her. Stay out of harms way!

In my prayer, I heard her say: "My dear ones, prevail in the spirit of prayer when false securities evaporate like the morning dew. Prevail amidst temptations against faith and love. Prevail when your lives become burdensome and fatigue threatens to weaken your resolve."

Pray and fast! We must never stop believing in the power we have available to us. We must prevail with Our Lady within the confines of her Immaculate Heart. This is the only path. Prayer and fasting are the only ways that we can intercept Satan's plan of destruction.

Mary will never leave us alone. She will remain with us until that glorious day of victory!

Message Given to Mirjana Dragicevic-Soldo August 2, 2011

"Dear children; Today I call you to be born anew in prayer and through the Holy Spirit, to become a new people with my Son; a people who knows that if they have lost God, they have lost themselves; a people who knows that, with God, despite all sufferings and trials, they are secure and saved. I call you to gather into God's family and to be strengthened with the Father's strength. As individuals, my children, you cannot stop the evil that wants to begin to rule in this world and to destroy it. But, according to God's will, all together, with my Son, you can change everything and heal the world. I call you to pray with all your heart for your shepherds, because my Son chose them. Thank you."

Seers are Convinced of Future Recognition

The Catholic Church will be able to prove the Virgin Mary's apparitions in Medjugorje. The scientific tests will greatly influence the Church's ruling on the matter. But official recognition will come only when the visionaries no longer live.

According to Medjugorje visionaries Mirjana Dragicevic-Soldo, Ivan Dragicevic and Marija Pavlovic-

Lunetti these are some of the future perspectives for Medjugorje, since March 2010 under study by a Vatican Commission headed by Cardinal Camillo Ruini.

Ivan believes the results of the medical-scientific tests conducted on the visionaries throughout the years and now in the custody of the Vatican Commission "will greatly influence the rulings and decisions of the Church". At first reluctant towards the tests proposed to him, in Medjugorje author Kresimir Sego's new book "A Conversation with the Visionaries" Ivan explains how consultations with the Virgin Mary during apparitions made him go through with the tests: "Yes, we have talked about this. I asked her whether or not I should go through with them. We agreed that I should because this was what the Church wanted. All these results are carefully looked after and have been forwarded to the International Committee founded by the Vatican. I believe they will greatly influence the rulings and decisions of the Church. Our Lady told us to accept these examinations and that we shall understand later why they were important", Ivan tells Kresimir Sego.

"I went through all this even though I found it difficult particularly because some of these tests were repeated up to four times. Nevertheless, we agreed to do them because Our Lady advised us so", Ivan adds.

The Church will recognize Medjugorje but only when the visionaries no longer live, visionary Marija Pavlovic-Lunetti said to the Croatian newspaper Slobodna Dalmacija on July 21st 2010: "The act of forming the Commission was a positive act. The Church is often not interested in the sensations. It has its own position and is not in a hurry. It took decades until the official recognition of the shrine in Lourdes or Fatima. So it is with Medjugorje. I am convinced that the Vatican recognizes the authenticity of the apparitions, but only when they stop and when we visionaries have died", Marija told Slobodna Dalmacija.

Visionary Mirjana Dragicevic-Soldo is confident, too, about the final ruling of the Church. Interviewed in 2007, three years before the Vatican Commission was formed, in Kresimir Sego's new book Mirjana says that the Church will come to "prove" what she sees: "I like the fact that our Church is cautious because there are many apparitions reported in the world and, in the end, it turns out that they are not authentic. I was never worried about the fact that the Church is waiting and examining the events because I know what I see.

When my Church proves what I see, then the Church will approve what I see", Mirjana tells Kresimir Sego.

In June this year Ivanka Ivankovic-Elez became the first Medjugorje visionary to testify before the Vatican Commission. Both Vicka Ivankovic-Mijatovic and Mirjana Dragicevic-Soldo have been reported next in line to be summoned by the Commission.
