Our Lady of Medjugorje's Message Given to Marija Pavlovic-Lunett November 25, 2023

"Dear children!

May this time be interwoven with prayer for peace and good deeds, so that the joy of the expectation of the King of Peace may be felt in your hearts, families and in the world which does not have hope.

Thank you for having responded to my call."

Commentary on the November 25, 2023 Message

"Let us not grow weary of doing good deeds, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up." (Galations 6:9)

In this message Our Blessed Mother calls us to interweave prayer for peace and to perform "good deeds" with compassion for people in need.

We can show our compassion for those in need by observing the Spiritual and Corporal works of mercy. The Corporal works of mercy are kind acts by which we help our neighbors with their everyday material and physical needs:

- Feed the hungry
- Shelter the homeless
- Clothe the naked (support the work of the St. Vincent de Paul Society)
- Visit the sick (spend quality time with those who are sick or homebound)
- Visit the imprisoned (participate in ministries to those who are incarcerated )
- Give to the poor (donate to charities)
- Bury the dead (spend time with the grieving)

Spiritual works of mercy are kind acts by which we help our neighbors with everyday spiritual and emotional needs:

- Walk with others through their pain.
- Offer words of encouragement to those who seem discouraged.
- Bring the light of God to those who are struggling in emotional pain or despair.
- Offer sympathy to those who are grieving.

We are living in a time where God is forgotten by too many souls. Terrorism, hatred, and wars are sweeping across the whole world. Our Lady tells us that the world has no hope. This is the hour in which the prayer warriors whom Mary had called and formed let their light shine, beginning in our families. We must remain vigilant so that we will not stray into the enemy's spiritual battleground where there is no truth. Our light must shine, which is God's light. We have been prepared for this mission – to light the path to Jesus Christ – our way, our truth, and our life.

It will be through prayer and acts of charity that joy will be felt in our hearts, families, and in our world. It will be through our prayer and acts of love that our light will shine for those who still live in the darkness of sin. The light of God – the King of Peace -- will bring hope into a dark and hopeless world.

Our Lady has called us this month to pray for peace and do good deeds. She is with us in this mission of love. We will see a new era of peace where Jesus our Savior will overcome the darkness of Satan. There is HOPE, our King of Peace will win the spiritual battle we are currently experiencing. We will feel the Hope that He brings in our hearts, families and in the world.
